

Effective use of the library Resources and services

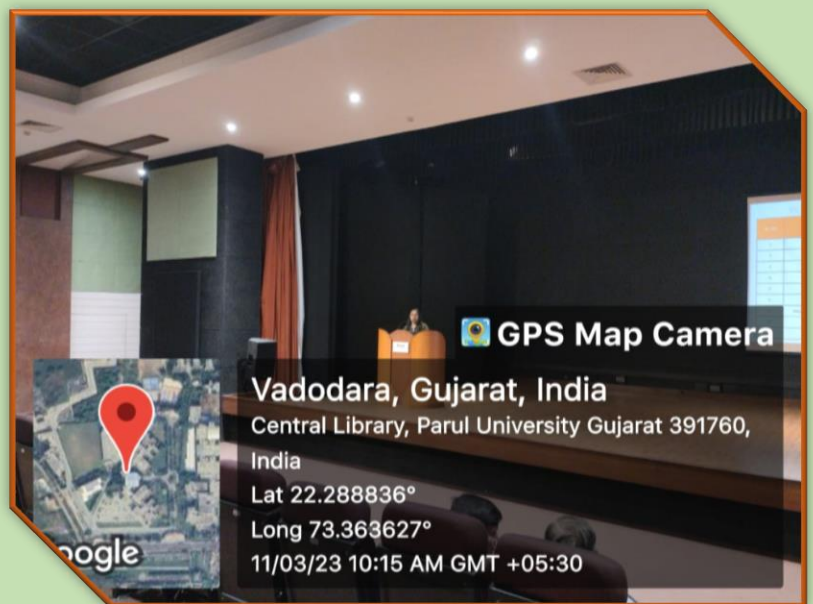

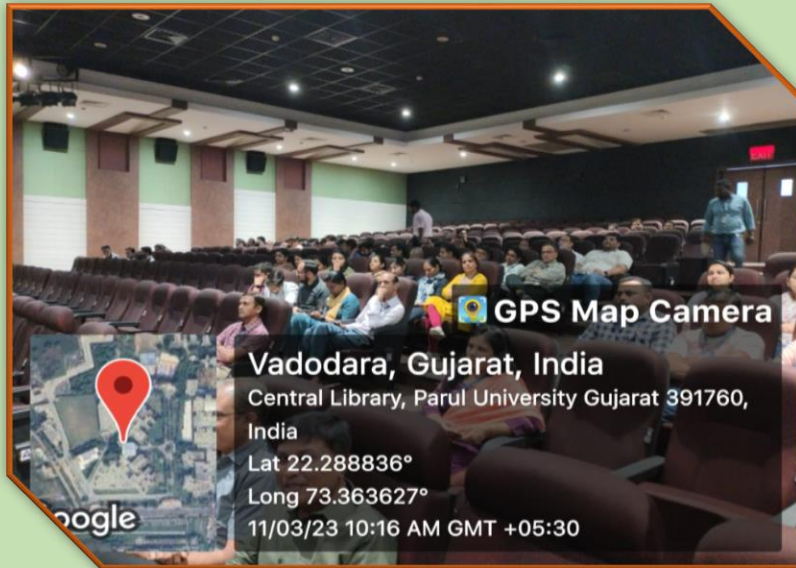

Central Library arrange a Library E-Resources and Services training program for the faculty of Engineering and Technology on 11 March 2023. 100+ Faculty attending this program. The program was arranged by the Central Library, The Programme was started with a PPT presentation by Dr Dhavalben Bhatt, Chief Librarian, at Parul University.

The main objective of this program was to give knowledge about Library E-Resources and Services, which are provided by the Parul University Library. The workshop aims to create awareness among the Faculty members of Engineering and Technology.

After the introduction part, Mr Prashant Raj, Head of Digital Library Services, Parul University explain the details of E-Resources like IEEE, EBSCO, DELNET, J-Gate, Web of Science, SCOPUS, BMJ Journals, MANUPTRA, and KNIMBUS databases and provide access to the content of journal articles, conference papers, thesis, patents and other information sources.

Dr Dhavalben Bhatt, Chief Librarian, Parul University, gave a token of appreciation to all faculty members of engineering and technology for attending this helpful program and advised them to make use of all the E-resources and services provided by our Parul University Library at the conclusion of the session on behalf of the Central Library.