

Vol. 19 No. 6 Issue 214

June 2019 Rs. 75

LAWZ

INDIA'S FIRST MONTHLY LAW MAGAZINE FOR ALL

NOTA
RIGHT TO REJECT

CAN JUDGES JUDGE THEMSELVES

NEW NATIONAL E-COMMERCE POLICY

FOREIGN DIVORCES IN PRIVATE INTERNATIONAL LAW

USA and Other Countries : $4.00

12 Court Marriage

The Special Marriage Act, 1954 has laid down the concept of court marriage. It provides for marriage between people belonging to different castes or religions.

24 NOTA Right to reject

That the right to register a "none of the above" vote in elections should apply, while ordering the Election Commission of India to provide a button for the same in the voting machines

26 Juvenile Justice Act

Use of child for begging is punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to five years and shall also be liable to fine of one lakh rupees

30 Foreign Divorces In International Law

The issues relating to marriage and matrimonial causes in conflict situations have gained a significant role as many Indians have settled abroad and have resorted to legal remedies as an answer

40 Can Judges Judge Themselves

The legal fraternity feels uncomfortable and smacks of an unfair role of collegium. Lots of articles have been published in newspapers regarding this episode

45 Safe Guarding

The right against self-incrimination is now viewed as an essential safeguard in criminal procedure

A Message from a Reader | Rajendran, Kerela

"Labour laws in India" was fairly an informative article enlightened various aspects of labour laws .

8  New National E-Commerce Policy	14  Attracting New Business	52  The Supreme Court is Not Amused
---	---	--

To Subscribe to LawZ
The following is the link to the only online portal to purchase subscription to LawZ Magazine.

Visit: www.lawzmag.com/subscribe

Or
Cut out the subscription form on Page 11 of LawZ and mail it along with a cheque (Details Given).

Reach Us at contact@lawzmag.com