Last week, when I went to attend one International Conference, I saw my friend Harsh. He is a Software Engineer in Nisha Pvt. Ltd. Many software developers, engineers and designers came from renowned companies all over the world. I was happy to see him after a long time. He wore sky blue shirt, navy blue tie and trouser. He looked quite different from the others. He applied gel to his hair and maintained crew cut of his college time. There was a golden bracelet on his right hand and a watch of big, showy dial on left hand. When he folded his sleeves, I could see an attractive tattoo on his right wrist. It reminded me of stylish Harsh of college days. He grabbed everyone's attention twice with a big laughter. His presentation was praised by everyone. During his presentation he mispronounced names of two Irish CEOs. He gave his visiting cards to each and everyone he met. I cannot forget that refreshing flowery smell of his perfume.
