Q.1 Do as Directed.

A. Read the following passage and answer the following (Each of 0.5 mark)

One of the world's intriguing sources of mystery has been airplanes vanishing in mid-flight. One of the more famous of these was the disappearance in 1937 of a pioneer woman aviator, Amelia Earhart. On the second last stage of an attempted round the world flight, she had radioed her position as she and her navigator searched desperately for their destination, a tiny island in the Pacific. The plane never arrived at Howland Island. Did it crash and sink after running out of fuel? It had been a long haul from New Guinea, a twenty hour flight covering some four thousand kilometres. Did Earhart have enough fuel to set down on some other island on her radioed course? Or did she end up somewhere else altogether? One fanciful theory had her being captured by the Japanese in the Marshall Islands and later executed as an American spy; another had her living out her days under an assumed name as a housewife in New Jersey. Seventy years after Earhart's disappearance, 'myth busters' continue to search for her. She was the best-known American woman pilot in the world. People were tracking her flight with great interest when, suddenly, she vanished into thin air. Aircraft had developed rapidly in sophistication after World War One, with the 1920s and 1930s marked by an aeronautical record-setting frenzy. Conquest of the air had become a global obsession. While Earhart was making headlines with her solo flights, other aviators like high-altitude pioneer Wiley Post and industrialist Howard Hughes were grabbing some glory of their own. But only Earhart, the reserved tomboy from Kansas who disappeared three weeks shy of her 40th birthday, still grips the public imagination.

1. Amelia Earhart's nationality was:

A: English B:Australian E:South African C:Canadian D:American

- 2. All the following are theories about Amelia's fate EXCEPT:
 - A: She crashed on a remote island somewhere near her destination.
 - B: Her plane ran out of fuel and crashed into the sea.
 - C: She was captured by the Japanese and executed as a spy.
 - D: She escaped incognito and lived under an assumed name.
 - E: She crashed somewhere on Howland Island.
- 3. Why was Amelia Earhart famous?
- 4. When did aircraft start developing rapidly?
- 5. Who else were making their name in the time of Amelia Earhart?
- 6. Why is Amelia Earhart till date in the minds of people?
- 7. Which was the last radioed position of Amelia Earhart and her navigator?
- 8. What happened as people were tracking the second last stage of the round about flight?
- 9. What had become a global obsession after the world war?
- 10. Give one word for "Elegant and refined" from the passage.

drawn across the heavens. The lights usually grow brighter, then suddenly dim. During this time the sky glows with pale yellow, pink, green, violet, blue, and red. These lights are called the Aurora Borealis. Some people call them the Northern Lights. Scientists have been watching them for hundreds of years. They are not quite sure what causes them. In ancient times people were afraid of the Lights. They imagined that they saw fiery dragons in the sky. Some even concluded that the heavens were on fire.
